

ANIMAL AND PLANT
HEALTH INSPECTION SERVICE

Cooperative New York State
Asian Longhorned Beetle
Eradication Program

-  Infested Site
-  Quarantined Area
-  Proposed Treatment Area
-  Park
-  Cemetery

In addition to the infestations located in Manhattan, Brooklyn, and Queens areas. The Asian Longhorned Beetle was first found on Long Island in September of 1996. The proposed treatment areas are located in Massapequa Park, East Lindenhurst, West Lindenhurst, and Islip. The proposed treatment areas total approximately 1.16 sq. miles.

DRAFT

